Question:

What is the main conflict in the story "The Nest"?

Answer:

R - Restate

A - Answer all parts:

- Define term

- Explain fully

C - Cite evidence

E - Explain quote

S - Summary sentence

In the story "The Nest" by Robert Zacks, there was conflict. Conflict is a struggle or fight. The conflict was internal. It was between Jimmy and himself. The conflict develops when Jimmy's mother doesn't want him to go on a hike with his new friend Paul because she thinks he is a bad influence. As a result, Jimmy had to make a decision – listen to his mother or go on the hike. The conflict was resolved when Jimmy chose to go on the hike and be a good friend to Paul. In the end, Jimmy's mom realized Paul was nice. A quote to support this is, "He told her in a choking voice he was going on a hike." This clearly shows that Jimmy decided to go on the hike and resolved his conflict. To conclude, this is the conflict in the story

Question

1. Make a text-to-text, text-to-self, or text-to-world connection to the video called "Freedom Hero". Follow all the required steps above.

Answer

I can make a text-to-text connection between the video "Freedom Hero" and the article "Child Slavery Protester Murdered" by Shirlee P. Newman. The article talks about a boy from Pakistan, Iqbal Masih, who was a child laborer in a carpet factory. He had endured cruel working conditions under the factory owners since the age of four. When he finally stood up to the owners and got help, he was able to go to school and help others who were in child labor. When he was twelve years old, he was murdered because he was protesting against child labor in his country. This selection is like the video that I saw called "Freedom Hero" because it also talks about Iqbal and how he helped others who were in child labor. It showed him giving speeches about how we can help end child labor and how he was murdered when he went back home. In the article "Child Slavery Protester Murdered" it says, "In 1995, Iqbal was shot and killed in Pakistan while he was riding his bicycle". This is my text-to-text connection to the video "Freedom Hero".
