

Grade 9 ELA - STORY TERMS

Allusion – a reference to a person or event from history or literature, e.g., “He was a real Romeo”

Antagonist – the major character in a narrative or drama that works against the hero or protagonist

Atmosphere – the overall feeling we get from the story from words and images used to describe the setting, e.g., cheerful, anxious, menacing.

Character – is a person in the story

Character Sketch – a brief description of a character that shows attitudes, feelings, thoughts, and personality. It also describes if a person changes in the story.

Conflict – a struggle between opposing forces; conflict may be described as:

internal – a struggle inside a person;

external – a struggle against the environment/nature or society, or struggle against another person (interpersonal)

Conflicts may also be described as:

main – the central conflict that moves the plot forward;

minor – secondary conflict that does not influence the plot a great deal

Dialogue – the actual words that characters speak

Flashback – presenting something that happened before the story that helps explain the current situation.

Foreshadowing – provides clues about events that may happen later in the story.

Irony – can be defined as:

Verbal Irony – when what a character says and thinks he or she means is actually different from what the audience perceives is meant;

Situational Irony – when there is a difference between what is expected to happen and what actually does happen;

Narrator – the speaker who tells the story

Plot – the author’s arrangement of events that make up the action of a story; includes:

- Exposition – background material about the characters, setting, and situation
- Conflict – any obstacle/problem that increases the tension of the story;
- Rising action – a series of events in the story that builds the suspense
- Climax – the moment when the action comes to its highest point of conflict
- Resolution – pulls together all the loose threads of the story

Point of view – the perspective from which the story is told. Includes:

First person (eg. I) – the narrator participates in the action of the story;

Third person (eg. he, she, Mary, Mr. Tucker, etc.) – the narrator does not participate in the action of the story; may be classified as:

1) Omniscient – the narrator presents the thoughts of more than one of the characters;

2) Limited – the narrator presents only his or her own thoughts which is only one side of the story

Protagonist – the main character in a story

Setting – time, place and circumstances of a story

Grade 9 ELA - STORY TERMS

Suspense –how the author keeps the reader interested and wondering what will happen next

Theme – the story’s main message or statement

Reminder – connections. Often, we are asked to describe the connections we can make with a text.

Other Important Terms:

Connection – connecting the text with our own lives, other texts, or world events.

Text-to-self connection – connecting a text to your own life, experiences, and feelings.

Text-to-text connection – connecting the characters, setting, events etc. from one text to another.

Text-to-world connection – connecting the text to world history and events.

RACES format – when asked, use the format below when responding to questions.

1. Re-state question (include title, author and term being discussed)
2. Answer all parts
 - Define term
 - Explanation
3. Cite evidence (Quote for support)
4. Explain what the evidence / quote supports
5. Summary sentence